

Moses Lei

10 Cyril Magnin St Unit 509, San Francisco CA 94102-2814

Tel: 705.901.5969 music@moseslei.net

PROFILE

Nine years experience in performance, musical theatre and music education. Experienced violinist, violist, conductor, composer, arranger, engraver and orchestrator.

EXPERIENCE

Music Services (freelance) 2007-Present

Transcription, engraving, arrangement, and orchestration services

Private Violin and Viola Teacher 2003-Present

Studio of students ages 7 to adult, all levels of playing difficulty

Buffy Between the Lines (internet radio podcast) 2009

Composer

Fairfax Symphony Orchestra (Fairfax, Virginia) 2006-2007

Violin

Washington Sinfonietta (Washington, DC) 2006

Principal Viola

Georgetown Gilbert and Sullivan Society (Washington, DC) 2005-2007

Music director, Into The Woods, Fall 2006; Cabaret, Fall 2005

Concertmaster, Patience, Spring 2007; Yeoman of the Guard, Spring 2006

The Mulberry Quartet 2006-2007

First violin and viola; arranger/copyist

Prince George's Philharmonic (Prince George's County, Maryland) 2005-2006

Viola; regular substitute principal viola

Fairfax County Public Schools 2005-2006

Substitute teacher, short-term and long-term

- Repeating and long-term assignments in kindergarten, 6th grade gifted, and MS/HS orchestras and bands

Northwestern University 2002-2004

Violin, Chamber Orchestra

Tenor, bass, and violin, Early Music Ensemble

Director and violin, Jones Orchestra

- 25-piece student ensemble; repertoire included Appalachian Spring and Le Tombeau de Couperin

EDUCATION

Northwestern University School of Music, Evanston, Illinois

B.M. in Composition - candidate

Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology, Alexandria, Virginia

2002

SKILLS

Experienced in conducting instrumental and vocal ensembles. Skilled in composition and arranging.

Communicates well with others. Works well with children. Fluent in English and Mandarin Chinese.