

Moses Lei

1528 Havenhurst Dr Apt 109, West Hollywood CA 90046-4500

Tel: 705.901.5969 mlei@moseslei.net

PROFILE

Five years experience in performance, musical theatre and music education. Experienced violinist, violist, conductor, composer, arranger and copyist.

EXPERIENCE

Fairfax Symphony Orchestra (Fairfax, Virginia) 2006-2007
Violin

Washington Sinfonietta (Washington, DC) 2006
Principal Viola

Private Violin and Viola Teacher 2003-Present
Studio of students ages 7 to adult, all levels of playing difficulty

Georgetown Gilbert and Sullivan Society (Washington, DC) 2005-2007
Music director, Into The Woods, Fall 2006; Cabaret, Fall 2005
Concertmaster, Patience, Spring 2007; Yeoman of the Guard, Spring 2006

The Mulberry Quartet 2006-2007
First violin and viola; arranger/copyist

Prince George's Philharmonic (Prince George's County, Maryland) 2005-2006
Viola; regular substitute principal viola

Act Two Performing Arts (Rockville, Maryland) 2006
Violin, Beauty and the Beast, January 2006

Fairfax County Public Schools 2005-2006
Substitute teacher, short-term and long-term
• Repeating and long-term assignments in kindergarten, 6th grade gifted, and MS/HS orchestras and bands

Northwestern University 2002-2004
Violin, Chamber Orchestra
Tenor, bass, and violin, Early Music Ensemble
Director and violin, Jones Orchestra
• 25-piece student ensemble; repertoire included Appalachian Spring and Le Tombeau de Couperin

EDUCATION

Northwestern University School of Music, Evanston, Illinois
B.M. in Composition - candidate (expected 2012)

Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology, Alexandria, Virginia
2002

SKILLS

Experienced in conducting instrumental and vocal ensembles. Skilled in composition and arranging. Communicates well with others. Works well with children. Fluent in English and Mandarin Chinese.

This information is current as of 8 August 2008.